

PRESIDENT FORMALLY OPENED EXPOSITION
AT JAMESTOWN WITH IMPRESSIVE CEREMONY

Which Commemorates
300th Anniversary of Landing of English
in America

PANIC NARROWLY AVERTED

In Front of the Stand While Opening Address Was Being Made.—Crowds
Are Not Being
Accommodated.

Jamestown, Va., April 26—While President Tucker was making his opening speech a panic occurred in the great crowd before the stand. For a time it looked as though women and children would be trampled to death
in the mass that swayed backwards and forwards.

Quick action on the part of the guards assisted by regular troops, avoided a serious situation. The crowd was finally quieted.

Jamestown Exposition Grounds, Va., April 26—Three hundred guns at sunrise, 500 guns at 9, a prayer, a speech, a golden key pressed by the President of the United States, 1000
flags unfurled from the roof-tops of a new magic city; then more guns booming from the sides of visiting battleships, from the clean-cut hulls of our own matchless fleet, and from the gray walls of Fortress Monroe.
Thus was the exposition begun, which celebrates the 300th anniversary of the first English settlement in America.

The guns and flags and martial music which predominated would have led the uninitiated visitors to believe that this is all a war show.

But within the gates the only signs that smack of powder and force are the blue-coated policemen and the militia-men on duty to save the crowds
from their own enthusiasm.

Made to order weather greeted the visitors, scarcely a cloud in the sky,
and just enough breeze to make the hot sun comfortable. Up to the time the President reached the grounds workmen were busy cleaning up the debris. In spite of the efforts however, the view from the landing was not inspiring. Few of the exhibit buildings were anywhere near complete, and those finished in most cases are nearly bare of exhibits. The unpreparedness of the show was largely due to bad weather.

The attendance at the opening was woefully small owing principally, to the fact that the transportation companies were utterly unable to handle the crowds.

When President Roosevelt began to speak, not more than 10,000 persons had been able to reach the grounds. Steamers bearing excusionists for the exposition were unable to land at the single pier, thus far ready for landing visitors. One of the steamers held up, carried visiting newspaper men.

Many of the structures are unfinished, and many of the displays will not be completed until after the middle of May.

The Norfolk Light Artillery Blues started the exposition with a 300-gun salute from the exposition grounds.
The arrival of the President's yacht Mayflower from Washington was the second event of importance, and as soon as her trim hull slipped into view and she joined the fleet of United States and foreign warships, every vessel fired a presidential salute of 21 guns.

The President's review of the fleet consumed about about one hour. Then the yacht came to anchor, and the President gave his reception to the flag and commanding officers of the fleet. Surrounded by a brilliant gathering of gold-laced officers, the President stood on the deck and shook hands cordially with each officer as he came over the side.

By 10 the reception was ended, and the visiting officers returned to their ships. The President was allowed a little time for rest before the exercises began on land, but he was on the move again by 11, going ashore in the Mayflower's big steam launch.

As he stepped over the Mayflower's side, the big blue presidential flag flying from the peak of the yacht came down, and one of the whitegarbed sailors in the launch unfurled
a duplicate flag of blue and floated it from the stern. Before the launch put off from the Mayflower's side, the guns of the yacht began counting the 21-note salute. The President was met at the end of the pier by a military escort, and as he entered the exposition grounds was given another 21-gun salute by the United States artillery.
It lasted but a few minutes of 11:30
when the viewing stand on Lee's parade, in the rear of the auditorium
building, where the opening exercises were to be held.

This is the program that was followed at the formal opening of the exposition:

Opening prayer by the Right Rev.
Alfred Magill Randolph, bishop of the diocese of southern Virginia.

Address and introduction of the president of the United States by the Hon.
Harry St. George Tucker, president of the Jamestown Exposition Co.

Address by the Hon. Theo. Roosevelt, president of the United States
Opening of the exposition by the President of the United States.

As soon as President Roosevelt pressed the gold button which was to turn on the electric current throughout the exposition grounds, every wheel in the new city began to move.
At the same moment a thousand flags were unfurled; all the ships in the harbor contributed their share by firing a salute, the bands burst forth with "The Star Spangled Banner" and every soldier presented arms.

The Jamestown exposition was open.

But that was only the beginning.
The military review came next, and for nearly an hour the President received salutes of the troops led by Major General Frederick D. Grant.
Behind the soldiers and sailors of the United States came the fighting mer-

from the warships.
Many governors of states who came to the exposition with military escorts helped to swell the procession of armed men.

On the reviewing stand with the President were most of the members of his cabinet, the vice president, the speaker of the House, the officers and directors of the James' own Exposition company, many members of congress,

the United States Commissioners to the exposition, about 20 governors and

WATER IS HIGH
IN BUCKEYE LAKE

FOUR GATES OPENED FRIDAY
TO KEEP IT FROM GOING HIGHER.

Grandstaff's Boat, The Marietta Just Launched, Will Run to Avondale This Season.

Buckeye Lake Park, April 26—
The heavy and continued rain ha-caused the water in the lake to go
two and one-half inches above high water mark, thus giving assurance of a fine stage of water for the summer. While there is absolutely no danger, four gates were opened today
to keep the water from going higher.
As the boats have not yet been taken out of Crane lake, near the park, the water has not been turned into the smaller lake as yet.

Ed Grandstaff has just launched the Marietta, which will be put into commission Saturday when the boat
will make its initial trip to Avondale.
On Sunday the Marietta will make five round trips to Avondale and Bumcrat's, and on Monday will begin regular schedule, carrying passengers between these points. Mr.
Grandstaff is now building a large room for a grocery and meat market here.

The rain is interfering with the work at the park, but the big force
of men has made marked progress,
and the managers are preparing for the park opening on Sunday, April 28th.

Andrew Carnegie, who has been ill
at New York for several days with an attack of bronchitis, was reported as "holding his own."

Gerald Fitzgerald, prominent young lawyer, shot and killed W. F. Opp, the proprietor of a billiard hall, at Friars Point, Miss. Outcome of quarrel.

VALUABLE HORSES STOLEN

And a Substantial Reward Was Offered For the Arrest —Chief Sheridan to Columbus.

Horse thieves piled their trade most advantageously here Thursday night, succeeding in getting away with two valuable animals, a good single buggy
and a set of single harness belonging to Mr. L. G. Spellman, residing a short distance beyond Channel street on North Fourth. The horses and other property was stolen during the night and the discovery was not made until early Friday morning when Mr. Spellman went to his stable to feed them.
Only a short time ago Mr. Spellman had been offered $400 for the two horses and it is believed that his loss will exceed $600.

As soon as the discovery was made
the local police department and county authorities were notified and messages were sent to neighboring counties warning the officials to be on the lookout for the thieves. A reward of $50 has been offered by Mr. Spellman for their capture.

Columbus, April 26—(Special)— Albert Green, who stole the horse from Mr. Spellman, was captured here, by an officer soon after he had disposed of the animal. He got $75 for the rig and when arrested, had all the money but 20 cents which he had spent for lunch.

Green took his arrest good naturely and joked with the policeman who nabbed him.

"That is more money than I ever saw at one time before," said Green.
"I had planned to have a good time
on that coin."

"You'd better take a good look at that roll," remarked the blue coat,
"for you will probably not see it again."

Green was taken to the city prison
at Columbus and locked in a cell to await the arrival of Newark officers.
Chief Sheridan arrived this afternoon and took charge of the man and will take him back to Newark this afternoon.

About noon Friday Chief Sheridan received a message from the head of the Columbus police department stating that two men answering the description of the thieves had been captured in the northern limits of that city and were being held.

Mr. Spellman and his son-in-law,
W. E. McCurdy had only just arrived at the police headquarters here when Chief Sheridan was preparing to go to Columbus. Accompanied by the two men the patrol wagon was pressed into hurried service and took the party to the Pennsylvania station,
where they boarded the train No. 19
for Columbus. It was necessary to hold the train for a couple of minutes
for the patrol wagon and its party.

clarify the situation. Taft leaders from various portions of the state will visit Cincinnati during the secretary's stay and the situation will be discussed.

The conference to draft a definite plan of battle for the Taft forces in Ohio to be held in Cincinnati next Monday.

ance Commissioner Vorys, and Harry Williams, managers of the Columbus

S.S.S. REMOVES BLOOD HUMORS

When the blood is pure and healthy the skin will be soft, smooth and free from eruptions, but when the blood becomes infected with some unhealthy humor the effect is shown by rashes, eruptions, boils and pimples, or other disfiguring and annoying skin disease. The skin is provided with countless pores and glands which act as a drainage system to rid the body of impurities through the perspiration that is constantly passing through these little tubes. There are other glands that pour out on the skin an oily substance to keep it soft and pliable. When the blood becomes filled with humors and acids these are thrown off through the pores and glands, burning and irritating the skin and drying up the natural oils so that we have not only Acne, Eczema, Salt Rheum, etc., but such dry, scaly skin affections as Tetter, Psoriasis, and kindred troubles. The treatment of skin troubles with salves, washes, lotions, etc. is not along the right line. True, such treatment relieves some of the itching and discomfort and aids in keeping the skin clear, but it does not reach the real cause of the trouble, which are humors in the blood, and it can therefore have no real curative effect on these skin affections. S. S. S., a gentle acting and perfect blood purifier, is the best and quickest treatment. It goes down into the blood and removes the humors, fiery acids and poisons from the circulation, cools the overheated blood, and by sending a fresh stream of nourishing blood to the skin permanently cures skin diseases of every character. S. S. S. is made entirely of health producing roots, herbs and barks, and is an absolutely safe remedy for young or old. S. S. S. cures Eczema, Acne, Salt Rheum, Tetter, Psoriasis, and all other disagreeable and unsightly eruptions of the skin. Special book on Skin Diseases and any medical advice desired furnished free to all who write.

diplomatic representatives of 34 foreign powers.

Norfolk, Va., April 26.—With President Roosevelt as the guest, and with diplomatic and military officials from all of the more important nations of the world in attendance, the Jamestown tercentennial exposition was today thrown open to the public. Every steamer and every train reaching Norfolk brought thousands of visitors. The city is decorated as seldom before, and the governor of Virginia proclaimed the day a holiday in this vicinity.

The president played an important part in the opening of the exposition and the exercises incident thereto, which began soon after he arrived at Hampton Roads. In the morning there was a review of the assembled men-of-war and the reception of the flag officers and commanding officers of the foreign ships. At half-past 10 the president left the Mayflower and was met at the end of the government pier by the officers of the exposition and a military escort, and was saluted by the United States artillery stationed on the exposition grounds. An hour later the president was escorted to the reviewing stand on Lee's parade, in the rear of the auditorium building, where a program of exercises, including the addresses of President Tucker of the exposition and President Roosevelt, and the pressing of the gold button opening the exposition took place. In the afternoon there was a lunch to the president and his party in the auditorium building, a review of a parade of the soldiers and sailors and the national guard, and a reception to the president by the officers and directors of the Jamestown exposition company.

While there are representatives of several European countries, the United States fleet naturally overshadows everything else. It far eclipses in fighting strength the vessels assembled in Oyster bay last year, and is probably the strongest force that will be gathered under the stars and stripes for several years to come.

The Ohio delegation at the exposition is comfortably located at the Inside Inn. A delegation of distinguished Virginians met the party at Newport News and escorted them to a boat which was waiting and, taking them across Hampton Roads to the exposition grounds, passed through the assembled fleet en route. A reception given by the governor of Virginia was attended by the Ohio delegation Thursday night at the Virginia state building.

Saturday will be a day of comparative rest for the president, he and Mrs. Roosevelt taking a trip up the James river on the Mayflower, so as to start for Washington about 7 o'clock in the evening. The Mayflower is scheduled to reach Washington Sunday morning. The president's party is made up as follows, in addition to himself: Mrs. Roosevelt, Miss Roosevelt, Masters Archie and Quentin Roosevelt, Justice Moody of the supreme court, Secretary Loeb, Assistant Secretary Bacon and

Mrs. Bacon, Assistant Secretary Latta Mrs. Ralph Cross Johnson, Captain Lee, one of the president's military aids; Captain Key, one of the president's naval aids; Lieutenant Commander Long and Dr. Ohnesorg, United States navy.

Monuments to South's Daughters.

New York, April 26.—If the plans of the United Daughters of the Confederacy do not miscarry, monuments to these daughters of the south whose heroism and devotion to a cause that was to be lost forms one of the bright pages of the civil war, will soon stand in the capitals of the thirteen original states. The idea originated with General Irving Walker of Charleston and was announced by the president of the New York chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy, Mrs. James Henry Parker, at the annual luncheon of that body. The thirteen states will be invited to place casts of the original statue or group in their capitals.

Fine Variety of Mushrooms.

As the ground is now full of moisture, and if the weather will stay fairly warm, the delicious spring mushroom is due to make its appearance in about ten days.

There are several kinds of edible fungi that come in the early spring, but that best known is the sponge variety, which all amateurs know, and every thing of this genus is perfectly safe.

There is a variety of this sponge family of mushrooms that is rarely gathered on account that it is not well known. It is a finer mushroom than the one mentioned above, being more fleshy and of more delicate flavor, and grows much larger than the common sponge fungus, which is named by the fungologists "Morchella" while the name for the variety described below is "Gyromitra" or "Helvella."

It occurs growing with the Morrels but likes the shadier places, being partial to places rich in organic matter, like soil from decayed wood. It is hollow like the Morrels but the walls are much thicker; the color is a deep red to a red-orange, but may vary from this with the variations of the soil from which they grow. Instead of being deeply pitted like the Morrels, the cap is of peculiar lobbed or irregular form, and look like ears standing out from the body of the plant.

NEW HEADQUARTERS FOR SERVICE BOARD

The vacant room in the city building, formerly occupied by the Boggs Brothers meat market, is being remodeled by the Board of Service and as soon as possible the board will occupy the room as offices. City Solicitor Bolton will take the present office of the board, and will conduct all his business from that office. The officials in the city building have long desired that the solicitor have an office in the building, where he can be readily consulted on legal questions.

White pique, with a round scalloped collar about the neck, was used for

NATURE PROVIDES FOR SICK WOMEN

a more potent remedy in the roots and herbs of the field than was ever produced from drugs.

In the good old-fashioned days of our grandmothers few drugs were used in medicines and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, in her study of roots and herbs and their power over disease discovered and gave to the women of the world a remedy for their peculiar ills more potent and efficacious than any combination of drugs.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is an honest, tried and true remedy of unquestionable therapeutic value.
During its record of more than thirty years, its long list of actual cures of those serious ills peculiar to women, entitles Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to the respect and confidence of every fair minded person and every thinking woman.

When women are troubled with irregular or painful functions,
weakness, displacements, ulceration or inflammation, backache, flatulency, general debility, indigestion or nervous prostration, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

No other remedy in this country has such a record of cures of female ills, and thousands of women residing in every part of the United States bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable compound and what it has done for them.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. For twenty-five years she has been advising sick women free of charge. She is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and as her assistant for years before her decease advised under her immediate direction. Address, Lynn, Mass.

TAFT AND FORAKER.

Simultaneously with the preparations of Secretary of War Taft to make a tour of Ohio comes the frank announcement of Senator Dick that he intends to stand by his colleague, Senator Foraker, in the campaign for political supremacy. An attempt is made in Washington to throw a veil of official decorum over this trip of the secretary, as if there were any secrecy as to its real object. What is certain is that his mission is to overthrow Foraker, but it is by no means so clear who will enjoy the fruits of the campaign should it prove successful. It is still an open question whether President Roosevelt will not stretch forth his hands for the third term which his flatterers and his army of officeholders are so eagerly tendering him. In the latter case Secretary Taft, like Virgil's bee, will be making the honey for another to consume.

But with all the patronage of the President, Senators Foraker and Dick, with the political machine they control, will tax the best efforts of their enemies to overthrow them. Secretary Taft would have the hearty good wishes of the whole country if the object of his mission were to destroy the sinister influence of this machine in Ohio politics. His mission, however, has no other purpose than to wrest the machine from Foraker in order to use it in the next presidential year—undoubtedly for a third term for Roosevelt.

It is mere cant and humbug to make public that this is a holy crusade of public virtue against the political corruption of which Foraker and Dick are the chief promoters in Ohio. As to the two Ohio senators, they are no worse if no better than they were two years ago, when in full enjoyment of the confidence of the administration and of the whole Republican party. Their

SUIT IS BEGUN BY THE CITY IN COMMON PLEAS

TO RESTRAIN CONTRACTORS FROM PROCEEDING WITH PAVING WEST MAIN.

For Alienating Affections of His Wife—Court House News of Importance Friday.

The City of Newark by Frank A. Bolton, city solicitor, has commenced suit in the Common Pleas court against Frank O. Richardson, Melville L. Cramer, John C. Brennan, J. Hall Nutter and William C. Christian, James McVeigh and Milton M. Taylor members of the Board of Public Service of Newark, and Frank T. Maurath, city auditor of Newark, to enjoin and restrain them from paving West Main street from the Raccoon creek bridge to Sixteenth street. The plaintiff alleges that the Board of Public Service altered and amended the plans and specifications and added thereto to work and material, to their plans and specifications and estimate that were not on the original to the amount of $4000. Plaintiff asks for an order of injunction restraining the performance of the contract; also that the Board of Public Service be restrained from paving any part of the contract. A temporary injunction was allowed by Judge Campbell.

Alienating Affections.

In the case of Robert C. Fulton vs. Griffith D. Jones, suit for $10,000 damages for alienating the affections of plaintiff's wife the defendant has filed a brief on motion to make the petition more definite and certain, wherein he says that the petition only states a legal conclusion and no facts, or at least no facts definitely.

Line Fence Case.

James Floyd and Mary E. Floyd have commenced suit in the Common Pleas court against Patrick McGinley. Plaintiffs say that they are the owners of lot 1147 in Newark, and that they have been in possession for more than 36 years of a strip of land one foot more or less, on the west side of the lot. They say that the defendant claims some interest in the premises adverse and hostile to plaintiffs. They claim that defendant has no claim or interest in the premises; that the claim is unfounded and a cloud on plaintiff's property; that defendant has commenced to dig and has dug a number of holes on the property of plaintiff for the purpose of building a fence. Plaintiff asks that the title to the premises be quieted and that the defendant and his agent be restrained from building the fence on the property of plaintiff and continuing to trespass on the premises. A temporary injunction was granted by Judge Campbell.

Case Against Justice.

In the case of Roy C. Bottomley vs. Charles E. Davis and others, the defendant, Lee S. Lake, has filed his answer, in which he admits that on March 11, 1907, he, as justice of the peace, issued a writ in aid of execution and caused the same to be served; that on March 21, 1907, he issued an order on the B. & O. railroad company ordering it to pay out of the earnings of the plaintiff the amount of the judgment, interest, costs and accumulative costs, but denies all the other facts. Kibler & Montgomery, attorneys for Lake.

To Sell Real Estate.

Elizabeth Oatman and Charles Oatman have commenced suit in the Common Pleas court against Samuel Walker. Plaintiffs say they have a right to and are seized in fee simple of the undivided one-third part of certain real in Hanover township, containing eighty acres. Plaintiffs ask that the court order their interest in the same set off to them, one-sixth to each, if the same can be done without manifest injury to the land, but if that cannot be done, they ask that the premises be sold according to law, and their interest paid them in money.

Partition Suit.

In the case of Hannah C. Weaver vs. Melissa J. Rockey, plaintiff has filed her reply in which she admits that the description of the real estate sought to be partitioned is correctly given in defendant's answer, but denies that a large sum of money will be required out of the estate by the administratrix to pay the debts of the estate. Plaintiff asks judgment as in the petition prayer for. Smythe & Smythe, attorneys for the plaintiff.

REV. F. E. VERNON WAS INSTALLED AT FIRST CHURCH

IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES ATTENDED THE FUNCTION ON THURSDAY EVENING.

Presiding Moderator was Rev. Grant Jones—Special Music Was Rendered.

A beautiful and impressive service attended the installation of the Rev. F. E. Vernon as pastor of the First Presbyterian church Thursday evening. A goodly number of persons, including many outside of the congregation of the church, was present to witness the ceremony.

An excellent half hour-sermon was delivered by the Rev. Dr. Holden, president of Wooster university. He took for his text the 37th, 38 and 39th verses of the 20th chapter of the book of Acts, enlarging upon the interpretation of these passages, brought out in summary the fact that the life of godliness is the most satisfying and helpful to man. His address was most instructive and appropriate.

The prescribed form for the installation proper was read by the presiding moderator, the Rev. Grant Jones. Following this the charge to the pastor and the congregation were delivered by the Rev. D. M. Ross of Zanesville, and T. A. Cosgrove, of this city, respectively.

Special music added to the occasion and Mrs. J. C. Bonshire and Mr. Merle Marshall each sang a delightful solo. Mrs. Sprague presided as accompanist.

The church was beautifully decorated with palms and cut flowers, helping to make the service one long to be remembered by the congregation of the church and the newly installed pastor.

The Rev. Mr. Vernon pronounced the benediction.

THIS AND THAT

Thousands of ground worms littered the sidewalks about and through the square all morning. It was practically impossible for a person to walk without stepping on some of the helpless things. Recent warm weather, combined with the heavy rain, caused the worms to appear.

A farmer threw a dollar and a half neck yoke at a hen that was doing her best to lay an egg in the manger, broke the neck yoke when he missed the hen, scared his horse so that he broke the halter strap, bent the ten commandments and will have to settle for that sure; wife heard the racket, saw that it was her pet hen that was being abused, so the agriculturalist lost out again; took it to heart, went to town, got drunk, was arrested, fine $10.00, realizes now that the hen that is an institution that must be protected, and that it don't pay to start anything where two females are involved.

It makes a physician very tired to be treating some man who eats dutch lunches, drinks whiskey and beer all day, then kicks on the medicine, alleging that it hurts his stomach.

FLEXIBLE

THE worst thing about breaking in a new pair of shoes is the hard, stiff feeling of the soles. You instantly notice a great difference when you put on a pair of "Dorothy Dodd" Shoes. They are especially constructed with the object of securing extreme flexibility of the innersole. The foot feels as if it rested on a soft cushion, instead of on a hard leather bottom. They combine all these minor points which count for a great deal if you value comfort and care to escape fatigue. Yet they cost but $3.00, $3.50 and $4.00 the pair.

OIL TERRITORY NOW UNDER LEASE.

BETWEEN CLAY CITY AND ROSE-VILLE TO BE THOROUGHLY DEVELOPED.

It is Said the Prospects For the Success of the Venture are Bright.
Field is New.

(Zanesville Signal.)

Zanesville will, it is said by those in a position to know, be the headquarters of a big gas, coal and oil company, which is now being formed to operate in the vicinity of Zaneville. The information comes from a reliable source and is trustworthy,
but the names of the promoters of the big concern are withheld and will not be made public. It is said, however, that local people are interested in the enterprise.

The new company is to be known as the Southwestern Oil and Coal company. Already the plans of the concern, the organization of which has not yet been perfected, have been carried out in part. Several thousand acres have already been leased.
This was done within the past month
but the matter has been kept a close secret until it leaked out Wednesday. The land leased lies along the line of the Southeastern Ohio interurban line between this city and Roseville and is situated about half way between Moxahala park and Roseville.

On this land the new company will
in the near future begin active operations and search for oil in payin'- quantities evidences of which are numerous over the tract of land leased.
Coal is also said to abound under the land and it will be opened up.

Although the similarity of name
and the location of the land lease might lead the public to believe that the new concern is affiliated with the Southeastern Ohio Interurban company, such is not the case. Official of the Southeastern Interurban company stated to the Courier Wednesday that the two organizations were separate and distinct. In addition to the land leased on the interurban line
it is said that the new company has taken option of a thousand acres or more between this city and Cambridge.

DEATH RATE IN CITY OF NEWARK IS INCREASING

Few people realize the fact, but the death rate in Newark and vicinity during the first three months of this year, has been alarmingly large.
In the month of March particularly,
there was a big increase over the death rate last year. The records of Cedar Hill cemetery for the three months of this year as well as those of 1906 are given below for comparison:

	1907	1906
January	17	23
February	18	15
March	33	14

Totals 68 51

These records are of the burials at the cemetery. Many of the deceased persons were taken out of town for burial and of course others were brought in, but the average balances up about right. The increase in the month of March is alarming, there being 19 more deaths this year than last. Last year the death rate in Newark was about 10 to each thousand inhabitants.

SHALL NEWARK ENTERTAIN 7TH O. V. I. NEXT AUGUST?

Meeting Will Be Held in Memorial

Invitation.

Friday, April 26, being the ninth anniversary of the departure of Co.
G (Newark Guards) of the 17th reg-service in the 7th O. V. I. in the war with Spain) for that service, it has been decided to celebrate that event

by holding a meeting at Memorial Hall on the evening of that date, to start a movement for the second annual reunion of the 7th Ohio, which will be held in Newark this year in the first part of August. Lieut. Col.
H. D. Burch, president of the regimental association, Major Walter Irvine, Captains Blizzard and Millhouse are invited and expected to attend. Members of the Board of Trade and all friends of the 7th Ohio
are expected to accept the invitation and attend. Every member of the "Old 7th" whether they were members of Co. G or not, are expected and must help in this matter in order that we can hold up the reputation of Newark as an entertainer.

Newark is centrally located and with a membership of 1335 men to draw from "Our Reunion" should be a record breaker.

Advice of the largest coffee dealers
in the world is always to buy the old-fashioned Arbuckles' ARIOSIA Coffee in the sealed packages. Don't ask for a pound of Mocha and Java, or buy by the price, for Coffee fluctuates and you cannot get the same coffee for the same price all the time unless you pay too much for it. Most of the so-called Mocha and Java Coffee is simply masquerading, and is not nearly as good coffee for you as Arbuckles' ARIOSIA, the blend of the Brazilian Coffees most suitable to the taste and health of American people. By the looks there is no difference between roasted Java and Brazilian Coffees; many people drink Brazilian but pay for Java.
The principal difference is that Arbuckles' costs you less. It is a mistake to believe that a high price guarantees quality. When you buy Arbuckles' ARIOSIA Coffee, you get a full one pound package of the leading Coffee of the world. Its sales for 37 years are greater than the combined sales of all the other packaged coffees. By giving better Coffee for the money, we have built up a business exceeding the combined businesses of the four next largest coffee firms in the whole world. If your dealer will not supply the genuine, write to ARBUCKLE BROS., New York City.

COSHOCTON GIVES
LINEUP FOR GAME
NEXT SATURDAY

Coshocton, April 26.—Interest is increasing in the big ball game Saturday which is to take place between Coshocton and the Newark O. P. team. Tickets are now on sale and are going at a smart rate.

The complete line up is now known and is as follows:

Rippeth will be behind the bat. This well known P. H. A. C. player has been pronounced one of the best outside the class A list of the minor leagues. He has been seen in Coshocton before.

Dave Wright, also an old favorite, will be over from Dennison to go into the box. Rice of Sebring, and Quailley of Dennison will also be on hands, to go on the firing line if necessary.

Foxy Lester Gerseline may share with Caldwell the honors of holding down the initial sack.

Long, the man who covered second in such faultless style in the games with P. H. A. C. last season, will cover the same corner for Coshocton.

McClellan of Dennison will shine at third.

Bo Ross has sent word that he will be here to play short or second.

Rice of Sebring will likely occupy the left field. Hommy Duffy will be in center, and Ward Slaughter will nail anything that comes into right garden. It is likely that a change or two may be made in the above before Saturday.

INFIELDER KILE.

One of the youngsters given a tryout

this season at Youngstown. He needs a little more training yet and will hardly get a place with the Champs this season.

Offer of Seymour & Rexroth.

Seymour & Rexroth, the shoe dealers on the South Side, have offered a pair of fine kid slippers to the pitcher who registers the most strike outs during the month of May. Another pair of slippers will be given to the player scoring the most runs during the month. These slippers are of fine kid, the players wearing them to and from the park in place of their spiked shoes.

DAN WHITE FAILS TO IMPRESS SCRIBES
AT YOUNGSTOWN

Dan White, the new first base candidate, may have it in him to play ball as the Youngstown Champs are in the habit of playing, but his first performance shows no indication of such ability, says Fred Sypher in the Youngstown Telegram.

White lacks finish, by his way of acting in his first work out Wednesday. His position and way of going after a ball do not resemble a batter's style. His fielding was good enough, being far the best that has been put up at the first corner.

The first base question is the only one unsettled. Manager Wright is scouring the country high and low for a first sacker. A tried out sacker is what is wanted. Above all things he must be a man of experience to balance up the infield. Manager Wright has lines out for several, but just now prospects are not very bright.

White played with Newark and Sharon last season and batted well.

FAMOUS HORSE TO BE SOLD.

Major Del Mar, driven by E. E. Smathers

Announcement last week that C. K. G. Billings had consigned all his trotters and pacers excepting Lou Dillon, 2:01, and her first born foal, to the Fasig-Tipton company's May sale in Cleveland, occasioned much more regret than surprise among horsemen. Coming close on the heels of the final adverse decree of the civil courts in the deplorable

Memphis Gold Cup embroglio, Mr. Billings' decision to sell his horses and retire from all connection with trotting was not difficult to understand.

UMPS BANNON AND LEWELLYN WILL
UMPIRE OPENER

Secretary Hopkins received a letter from President Morion this morning giving the assignment for the umpires in the opening games of the season next week. Newark will be favored with two, Messrs. Bannon and Lewellyn. Last year we had a Bannon, but this year it's another individual who will open here. Bill List will officiate at Lancaster and Messrs. Hart and Steinberg will work at Marion. The comedian, Arlei Latham, will work a Mansfield.

MANAGER FERD DRUMM.

The foxy Marion chief has already commenced to cut down his salary list. He released four yesterday, all of whom were youngsters. The balance of his men he will carry through the first month of the season.

SHORTSTOP MCCLINTOCK.

Was with the Champs last season, and from reports from Youngstown he is as popular as he was last season. The records show that there were no better short fielders in the O. P. league last season.

NEW CASTLE HAS ABOUT SELECTED
TEAM FOR SEASON

New Castle, April 26.—Manager Billie Smith, with but one or two exceptions, has selected his team for the season. The positions that are in doubt are first and second bases. There is more doubt about the first sack than there is about the second. The probable line up will be: Bringer and Murphy, catchers; Ernest, Smith, Streeter, outfielders; Green, third base; Hagen, shortstop; Pinkney and Heffner, second; Schlatter and Feeney, first; Hawk, Steen, Bowers, Noah, Limrie, Camnitz, pitchers.

Since Anderson has been sold to Washington, there remains but one man capable of filling his shoes, Hagen. The kid is more capable than was Anderson and this weak spot will be weak no more. Hagen is one of the best little players in this section and all are glad he is to take care of the difficult job. Green will go to third. The selection by Smith of this player is to be commended.

At second Heffner and Pinkney will be the only aspirants. It looks like Pinkney. He has showed up in great form and as he was among the leading second sackers in the league last season, he will, more than make good this year. At first base the fight is a warm one. Schlatter is fielding as well as ever. Feeney is also showing up in great shape. This is about the only position that Smith has not yet decided upon.

Catcher Brigger, mentioned in the above story, is the same man who tried out here last season and was turned down by "Cotton" Bates. Of course, that is no reflection on his ability as a ball player, as "Cotton" made several mistakes.

Enough Said NORTON'S "Get the Habit"

In the Face of Competition

We have secured fifteen per cent. of the cigar business of this country.

How?

By making better cigars of every grade than any other manufacturer has produced, and telling the truth about them.

By making the strongest definite claims that any cigar manufacturer ever dared to make—and by living up to them.

By marking the boxes of our standard brands with the Triangle A so that every smoker of this country could shut down on the hit-or-miss way of buying cigars on anybody's say-so, and make his selections from brands that he knows are the best his money can pay for—better in every way—quality and grading of leaf, evenness of blend, and perfection of condition.

Now put that to the test. Smoke a cigar of some brand bearing the "A" (Triangle A) and find out. You can't do better than begin with About Vic. Baltuff's village store!

Then Slack he 'lows the corn will fail,
Which prompts Ol' Grandad Burr to

At eve when work has ceased its grind
And yielded respite to its knight,
Dame Pleasure beckons with her wand
To check the mad world in its flight—
Then gather flockwise round the door
The "natives" at the village store!

They loaf upon decrepit chairs,
Or balance nimbly on a box,
While others seek the carbarn's perch—
And rusticate upon the rocks.
Then "Captain Boggs" he gets the floor
And edifies the village store!

There's Clark and Jones, and Willie Brown,
And several molders from "the works";
The city marshal joins the bunch,
Likewise the grocer and his clerks.
Then "General" Wood he lets 'er soar
In front of Baltuff's village store!

There's loud guffaw and hooded quips
Portending jokes that have been sprung
To agitate some hapless wight,
At whom the javelin is flung—
For everything is known—and more—

"Th' crops is lookin' mighty well, Fer which we all th' Lord should bless."
Then silence reprimands the bore
Who 'sees tings' at the village store!

The government is groomed and spanked
And made to stand up prim and straight;
"Judge" Haller, stopping for some plug
Discusses "pints" of town and state—
While time floats on benches four,
Yet deigns to argue at the store.

They sit and spit and smoke their pipes,
Grave strategists and sparkling wits;
Some hit the cracks and others don't,
Yet every man he sits and spits—
While time floats on the other shore,
And darkness hides the village store.

Old grocery shop, we love you yet,
Mid palaces of stone and steel;
And some day we will sit and spit
Beside thy fragrant onion peel—
Just restin' at the open door
Of that old, cozy village store.

BYRON WILLIAMS.

FAKE STORY PRINTED BY ANOTHER PAPER

Chief Sheridan exploded a sensational story which was sprung by a local paper last night under big headlines concerning an alleged holdup on Walnut street. An officer was sent to interview Harry Wildman and B. and O. Callor Strear, and both men denied that they had been held up. Wildman told the officer that a hobo had struck him for a price of a drink while walking along the street but that there was no scene or anything sensational about the matter.

Chief Sheridan stated that the reference made to the police department as having "bottled" the story to prevent its publication was maliciously false and was in injustice to the department. The first information of the matter came to the department through the paper and the investigation by the department proved the whole story to be a fake.

DELICATE CHILDREN

Advice to Newark Mothers Who Have Delicate Children.

If we could only make all fathers and mothers in Newark regard what we say there would be fewer sickly, delicate children on our streets.

Rapidly growing children need a great deal of vitality. They grow fast, play hard, and work too hard at school, and many such children are tired, thin pale and worn when they ought to be robust and rosy.

Every run-down, growing child in Newark should take Vinol, our delicious cod liver preparation without oil. It requires almost no digestion at all and cannot upset delicate, weakened stomachs as do old-fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions. Vinol also contains peptonate of iron.

It strengthens the digestive organs, makes new vitality, sound flesh and muscle tissue, strong bone structure and pure, rich, red blood. Vinol fills out hollow cheeks and makes thin little arms and legs plump and round.

Said Mr. Frank D. Hall, our local druggist: "We cannot recommend Vinol too highly for puny, weak and ailing children, to build up the run-down, over-worked, tired and debilitated, or to give renewed vitality to the aged, and we cheerfully refund the money in every case where it fails." Frank D. Hall, Druggist.

Note—While we are sole agents for Vinol in Newark, it is now for sale at the leading drug store in nearly every town and city in the country. Look for the Vinol agency in your town.

BURGULARS AT VANATTA

A special from Vanatta this morning says that the general store owned by T. A. Vanatta was entered by burglars last night and a quantity of goods stolen. There is no clue to the identity of the burglars. The burglars gained entrance to the store by forcing a shutter from one of the windows. The local officers have been notified to keep a look out for the goods and any suspicious persons will be looked up for investigation.

In those ancient days the Springs of Aachen, steaming with volcanic heat, were thought to have magical powers. But science at last discovered their beauty-giving salts, and a great German scientist embodied those salts in

veroform toilet soap

—Nature's beautifier—the daintiest toilet requisite ever produced.

Veroform Toilet Soap brings to you the fragrance of the fields and the freshness of the open air. It imparts new life and health and beauty to the skin, and fills you with a sense of well-being and happiness.

The most exquisite toilet soap that ever was made, even if it had no medicinal value.

The most effective medicinal soap that ever was made, even if it had no special merits for the daily toilet.

Received the Gold Medal and a special award, the Cross of Honor, at the Health Exposition, Berlin, 1904; Prize Medal, Luttich, 1905; Grand Medal for Progress, Vienna, 1906.

Sold at All the Leading Stores

Besides Veroform Toilet Soap in cakes described above, there is also Veroform Toilet Soap Liquid—absolutely neutral, antiseptic and non-irritating. Veroform Toilet Soap Liquid is ideal for shampooing, leaving the scalp in aseptic condition and the hair perfectly clean, with its natural gloss. In the nursery, Veroform Toilet Soap Liquid, sprinkled in the water, prevents eczema and chafing, and keeps the baby sweet and healthy. For the sleeping car and hotel toilet the hygienic advantages of Veroform Toilet Soap Liquid over cake soaps are instantly recognized.

La Fern Ashbrook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Ashbrooks, has been notified by the Baptist Young People's Union of America, publishers of "Our Juniors" at Chicago, that she has been awarded first prize for the best drawings in the recent contest which was open to all under 17 years of age. The subject of her sketch was a small boy with a basket of flowers upon his arm, to comply with the requisition, "A Sign of Spring" and a copy of which appears in the May number of "Our Juniors."

Next Monday evening there will be chorus rehearsal with Newark and Palaskala choruses and orchestra, so be in your place everybody. Let there be a full attendance in all the parts. Arrange your work beforehand so as to give your undivided attention for at least a generous hour's earnest work, so that every moment may tell. The director has his hands pretty full so "watch him" and don't make him talk too much. Let the baton do the necessary "talking." Everything is in full swing, and the chorus is bound to be a magnificent production.

Sunday morning, at 10 o'clock, the annual "thanks offering" of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal church will be observed. Miss Leonora Seeds, for fifteen years a missionary in Japan, will tell of the work and its needs.

Arbor day did not pass here unobserved. The four classes of the High school each planted a tree with appropriate ceremonies. The trees were planted between the sidewalk and street, in place of trees that have died, and in a few years will add materially to the appearance of the grounds. The lower grades held exercises in their rooms in honor of the day.

Miss Beulah Graham of Middletown, Ohio, who has been visiting here for a few days, has returned home.

The Helsey well on the John Montgomery farm, in the Stark field, two miles west of Granville, came in Wednesday for about one million, with 16 feet of sand. The well was shot Thursday, and it is said that it is now good for considerably more than two million. The tools will be taken to the Barr farm where a derrick is up.

On next Wednesday evening the Shepardson College Glee club will give a concert in Recital Hall. Great preparations are being made for the event which promises to be one of unusual merit.

Miss Lillian Morris of Zanesville, who has been visiting here for the past week, returned home Thursday night, having had a most enjoyable visit.

Thomas Halley, a prominent farmer of Fairfield county, was in the village Thursday on business.

There will be something doing tonight in the rooms of the Social club. The wives of the members will have charge of things and will entertain their husbands.

Many Granville people will be interested in learning that a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Carey Jones at their home in Los Angeles, Calif., on April 23, and has been named Robert Eugene Jones. Mrs. Jones will be remembered as Miss Anna Cross, one of the Cross Sisters Quartet, formerly of Granville.

Dandelion

removes the cause of kidney trouble.

Guaranteed under the Pure Food and Drugs Act, June 30, 1906. Serial number 3517.

A healthy kidney is a filter. The blood gets in one end of the kidney full of poisonous and waste material. It comes out from the other perfectly pure. Like all filters the kidneys get out of order. The trouble is only slight at first, but rapidly becomes dangerous if neglected, because the kidneys become choked with refuse, and the result is a leaking filter, full of holes and ulcers, with the natural consequence that the whole system becomes poisonous and the blood contaminated with uric acid. Dr. Edwards' Compound Dandelion Tablets act directly upon the kidneys and remove the cause of the trouble. In other words, they repair the leaking filter and make it clean and healthy. YOUTHFUL SHOPLIFTERS HAVE
CONFESSED CRIME IN CHILLICOTHE.

U. B. Meeting Has Closed at Columbus—Millers' Convention Has Adjourned.

Chillicothe, O., April 26. — Cherry Sells, 15, and Freda Kern, 11, arrested for stealing two fine watches, confessed to being shoplifters. In the past few weeks, it is charged, they secured seven rings, two bracelets and hundreds of postal cards, novelties and trinkets in every store in the city. At the jewelry stores one girl would enter and say that her mother wanted her to select a birthday gift. While examining the displays the other would enter and get the clerk's attention about repairing a broken ring, carried as a blind. They claim they got the ideas from moving pictures in a vaudeville theater, showing a girl shoplifter working the jewelers. All the goods have been recovered.

United Brethren Missions.
Columbus, O., April 26.—The general board of home missions of the United Brethren church closed its meeting here. The board appropriated $50,000 for home mission work for the coming year and $2,000 for the education of deaconess at Dayton. There was an increase of 52 per cent in the amount raised for the work compared with the previous year.

To Attack Exchange.
Columbus, O., April 26.—Richard J. Gardiner, former secretary of the Builders and Traders exchange, was placed on trial for alleged embezzlement of the exchange funds. Frank S. Monnett, attorney for Gardiner, will seek to prove by property owners that they were misled of thousands of dollars because the builders pooled their interests, submitted fake bids, and divided the profits. It is his contention that the exchange was conducted in violation of the anti-trust law and that it had no right to employ a secretary.

Heard Saved by Dream.
Toledo, O., April 26.—A dream saved Frank Dines, an old mail carrier of Martins, O., more than $1,000. A clairvoyant said that for a certain sum he would let Dines live to be 91; then he consented to let him live until he was 92. After this the clairvoyant said that he could increase Dines' money 15 fold, so Dines gave him his bank certificate for $1,027.23, agreeing to sign them later. But Dines had a dream that he lost all his savings, and decided to tell a policeman. The clairvoyant's arrest followed.

County Medical Societies.
Columbus, O., April 26.—A meeting of the secretaries of the county medical societies of the state was held here. Dr. J. H. J. Upham of Columbus was elected temporary chairman and Dr. Charles J. Shepard, also of Columbus, temporary secretary. It was decided to hold the next meeting at Cedar Point in August, at the time of the meeting of the state medical society, when a permanent organization will be effected.

Millers Complete Labors.
Dayton, O., April 26.—The Ohio Millers' association, which has been in session here, completed its labors and adjourned after adopting numerous resolutions and electing officers. Jenkins of Marion was elected secretary of the association.

Prices Prohibitive.
Sandusky, O., April 26. — That the wine interests in the Lake Erie district, valued at over $1,000,000, will not be merged, was the announcement made by James Flynn, who for more than a year has been bending his efforts in this direction. The reason assigned by Flynn is that the prices fixed by the officials of the various concerns are prohibitive in every instance.

Stabbed in the Side.
Cincinnati, O., April 26. — Rudolph Myers, foreman in the Schaengold Brothers' establishment, is in a serious condition from a stab wound and shock at his home, and he does not know who stabbed him nor why it was done. He was alighting from a street-car when a man approached him from the rear and plunged a knife into his right side.

Columbus, O., April 26.—The body of Frank Jeffries, 46, a contractor, was found at the bottom of an old well at the home of his sister in Maple Heights, a suburb. Jeffries disappeared about five weeks ago. He had been in ill health and friends say it was a case of suicide.

MISSING BONDS ALL LOCATED

Amount Stolen Said to Have Been in Excess of $400,000.

SLEUTHS ARE STILL AT WORK

District Attorney Jerome and Assistant Considering the Case, but Decline to Make Statement—Suspect, Unable to Raise Bail, Remains in the Tombs.

New York, April 26.—Secrecy surrounds the work of the district attorney's office and the private detective bureau charged with the running down of those responsible for the theft of bonds from the Trust Company of America, and in connection with which W. O. Douglass, a loan clerk, and O. M. Dennett, a broker, are under arrest. There were rumors that many of the missing bonds had been found where they had been secreted under the flooring of Dennett's office in Wall street. This could not be officially verified, nor could the still more persistent report that the brains of the conspiracy against the trust company were to be found in the person of a Boston lawyer, yet unnamed publicly. Pressed for a statement, District Attorney Jerome said: "There are certain phases of the case now under consideration which neither my assistant, Mr. Murphy, nor myself, could speak at the present time. We are both considering the matter."

The world says: "It has been learned that the amount of bonds stolen from the Trust Company of America by W. O. Douglass, the assistant loan clerk, was in excess of $400,000. All of those bonds are now in the possession of the trust company or have been located. It was learned that the major part of the stolen bonds were taken from the strong box of the company by Douglass shortly before he fled on Friday last. His purpose in doing this, it was claimed, was to compel the company to overlook his smaller thefts if he should return this block."

No statement has been issued by the trust company to show exactly what the theft amounted to. Robertson Honey, attorney for Douglass, was unable to raise $10,000 bail for his client, and Douglass remained in the Tombs.

MR. GEORGE GOULD GIVES HIS VIEWS

Before Sailing For Europe He Says He Has No Fears for Financial Conditions.

New York, April 26.—Just before he sailed for Europe, George J. Gould was asked his views on the business and financial conditions of this country. He said: "I have no fears as to the future. The country was never so prosperous before, and the future looks bright." Questioned as to the 2-cent fare for railroads, he replied: "I am not in favor of it. It will hurt the railroads, for there is no profit in passenger traffic, and this will prove to be a great injury." On general railroad legislation he said: "I am in favor of much of it, but against anything that will hurt the credit of the railroads. No railroad can borrow money under the present conditions."

Heavy Coal Shipments. Pittsburgh, April 26.—Four million bushels of coal were shipped down the Ohio river from this port, which is one of the largest shipments known at this time of year. The shipment was made possible by a sudden rise of the rivers to a shipping stage, caused by heavy showers at the headwaters of the Allegheny and Monongahela rivers. The rivers are still rising, and as fast as empty tows return they are immediately loaded and sent back down the river. It is expected that the total shipment will reach 6,000,000 bushels on this rise.

To Entertain Foreigners. Washington, April 26.—Arrangements have been made at the navy department for the entertainment of the officers of foreign warships assembled at Hampton Roads for the Jamestown exposition. The program includes a visit to Washington under the escort of officers of the United States navy and their entertainment while in this city as guests of the nation.

Claims Self-Defense. South Bend, Ind., April 26.—Albin Ludwig of Mishawaka, on trial here for wife-murder, made a plea of self-defense claiming that after his wife had attempted to poison him she attacked him with a potato masher. During the fight he caught her by the throat, he says, and she suddenly collapsed, overturning a table on which was a lamp. Her clothing caught fire. Ludwig states that he could not put out the fire, and after his wife had been burned to death he attempted suicide by cutting his arteries.

LAWYERS TOO LOYAL TO DUTY, SAYS JUSTICE DAVID J. BREWER.

JUSTICE DAVID BREWER SPEAKING AT CARNEGIE HALL.

New York, April 26.—Appealing for a higher standard of ethics in the practice of law, Justice David J. Brewer of the United States Supreme court, speaking before the Society for Ethical Culture, in Carnegie Hall, said:

"The old idea that a lawyer must be all to his client is slowly passing away. He has no right to sell his integrity, to barter his honor or his conscience. The court room should be something more than a mere arena where intellectual athletes meet, striving to trip and throw each other. The judge is something more than the umpire of a debate. Judge and counsel should alike have as the supreme thought the establishment of justice. A verdict won by a lie is a disgrace to the counsel. Such a success is really a defeat."

Justice Brewer began by saying that none of the professions was so often or so wrongly attacked as the legal. He would not stop to answer those aspersions, he said, looking forward as he did, and not backward. No lawyer betrayed his client. Indeed, he said, the objection was that the lawyer was too loyal in the discharge of his duty.

BOOMING CANNON FOR PRESIDENT

Fireworks to be Set Off for Speaker at Birthday Dinner at Washington.

Washington, April 26.—A quiet effort is being made by some of the prominent members of the House to arrange a dinner to take place in Washington at which the presidential boom of Speaker Cannon will be launched. It is to occur May 5, the date upon which "Uncle Joe" celebrates his 71st birthday. The birthday celebration is only an excuse to get the Republican leaders together with a view of formally organizing the movement for the speaker.

Released, Rearrested. Boise, Idaho, April 26.—The case of W. D. Yost, charged with contempt of court for an alleged effort to influence a juror on regular panel, which will probably try W. D. Haywood for alleged complicity in the assassination of former Governor Steunenberg, was dismissed by Judge Wood in the district court. The court held that the affidavit of Juror Wagner, on which Yost was called into court, was insufficient. Yost was immediately rearrested, however, at the suggestion of the court, under Idaho statute making attempt to influence a juror a felony.

DETECTIVES THINK THE MARVIN BOY WAS MURDERED

Dover, Del., April 26.—The state detectives who caused the arrest of Frank Butler, the alleged kidnaper of the Marvin boy, and who was ordered released by the attorney general, will continue their investigation. Detective Lore of New Jersey adheres to his theory of death, and having been privately engaged will dig for the body of the boy. He will first ransack the David Moore woods, near where Butler, in his statement, told of stopping to fix a broken wagon bolt and where Caldwell, his companion, last remembers of having seen the bag of "net corks." "Little Horace Marvin is dead," Lore said, "and we expect to find the body."

Metcalf Orders Inquiry. Washington, April 26.—As a result of the episode in the congressional library recently, in which two members of the marine corps were ejected from the building Secretary Metcalf will order an official investigation. It was claimed by the watchman that the marines were detected in the act of fighting, while the marines charge they were ejected because they were in uniform.

To Move Against Liquor Salesmen. Topeka, Kan., April 26.—Attorney General Jackson announced that as soon as he can secure the evidence that will warrant a prosecution he will begin the prosecution of traveling salesmen selling liquor in Kansas.

PROMISED BRIDE ISSUED STATEMENT ON OIL CITY TRAGEDY

Oil City, Pa., April 26.—Miss Sampson, who was to have married Thaddeus Ross, who was killed on the day set for the wedding by Miss Belle Stroup, a former sweetheart, issued the following statement:

"I did not know Miss Stroup. I was aware Mr. Ross kept company with her before he commenced calling on me four years ago, but I was under the impression he had stopped, and never dreamed of his corresponding with her. Had Miss Stroup come to me Wednesday, when she arrived in Oil City, or at any time after she first learned of our proposed marriage and told her story, which has every appearance of being true, I should never have permitted the marriage ceremony to have been performed. If Thad had promised to marry this girl, she should have been his wife."

Although ostensibly living with his parents, Ross, it is learned, had a furnished room in a business block in the heart of the city, where he sometimes slept and entertained his guests. That he apprehended trouble at his wedding is shown by a request made of the Sampson family that there should be plenty of light in front of the house in order that he might see the guests as they entered the front door. Ross was warned by friends that he should be careful, but he appeared to consider the warning a joke.

Free Love Killed It. Bellingham, Wash., April 26.—"Equality," a socialistic colony established in 1897, was wiped out of existence by a court order. Judge Joyce of Skagit county directed that its property be sold to pay the colony's debts. The property consists of 600 acres of land, sawmill, printing plant and 20 dwellings. The colony was established by a national organization known as the Brotherhood of the Cooperative Commonwealth, of which many prominent Socialists were members. A portion of the colonists adopted the doctrine of free love, and disaster followed.

TWO ENGINES SLIDE DOWN 75 FOOT BANK.

REMARKABLE WRECK ON THE R.W. & O. RAILROAD CAUSED BY LANDSLIDE.

Rome, N. Y., April 26.—What many railroad men call the greatest "mixup" they have ever seen resulted last Sunday night in the wreck of a freight train on the Rome branch of the Rome, Watertown & Ogdensburg railroad. There were two engines on the train, and the two engine drivers and one fireman escaped serious injuries. E. T. Harford, a fireman, was killed. Leon Joyce, a fireman from Watertown, was thrown to the top of the tree in the picture, and when he came down his engine driver, William Dearing of Watertown, was crawling out of Fish creek.

SENDS A "JOHN ALDEN" TO GREET HIS "PRISCILLA."

BETTY DRESSER.

New York, April 26.—Piqued at the coldness of her fiancé, who preferred duty to love and failed to meet her when she came to America to wed him, Betty Dresser of Hanover is today at the German Lutheran Mission wondering what sort of explanation the bridegroom to be will give when he finally reaches her.

When the young woman stepped from a steamship she expected to be met by her sweetheart. He wasn't there. In his place stood Oswald Ziener, who explained that her fiancé had made a trip to Havana, postponing the wedding until his return.

She stamped her foot when she heard this, but Zieener pleaded for his friend and mollified the girl for the time being. Since then he has been playing the role of John Alden for the absent Miles Standish, and the Priscilla in the case finds comfort in his ministrations. What the outcome will be cannot be learned until the other sweetheart returns.

BULLET EXAMINED BY THE JURORS IN DE MASSEY CASE

New York, April 26.—The bullet that killed Gustav Simon, the shirt waist manufacturer, who was shot and killed in his factory last November, was exhibited in court, where Mrs. Anisia De Massey is on trial charged with having taken his life. While the deadly missile was passed from hand to hand by the jurors she sat chatting with her counsel and from time to time making notes in a memorandum book. Among the spectators in court were two sons of the murdered man. One of them, Dr. Carleton Simon, an expert in criminology, is making a study of the defendant. Mrs. Anna Polanza and Miss Elizabeth Hale, employees in Simon's factory, testified they heard Simon say, after he had been shot, that Mrs. De Massey fired the shot.

MADDENED MOB ON A STREET CAR ATTACK MOTORMAN

Whose Car Ran Over and Killed a Sixteen Year Old Boy in New York.

New York, April 26.—The sight of the horribly mutilated body of a 16-year-old boy, who had been ground to death, transformed the passengers of a Coney Island street car into a maddened mob who beat into unconsciousness and almost killed the motorman. In the crowd was the father of the victim, who until order had been restored was unaware that his son had been killed. The car, operated by George Decker, was moving through Franklin avenue, Brooklyn, when Edward Kelly, in plain, ran out of a side street and onto the track. The car struck him and the wheels severed his head and legs. The motorman was dragged from the platform thrown on the pavement and trampled upon. Nearby policemen unable to check the riot, summoned reserves who beat back his assailants and burned the senseless motorman to a hospital, where he may die.

SHEEP HERDERS WERE WAYLAI

Montrose, Colo., April 26.—While on their way to the sheep range in this county with a herd from Utah, three herders, George Cornell, Peter Swanson and Al Swanson, were set upon by seven masked men at White Water, Colo., 55 miles west of here. Peter Swanson was shot and mortally wounded and his companions bound hand and foot and left helpless on the prairie. News of the shooting has stirred the cattlemen and sheep owners of this section to a high indignation, and a diligent search for the perpetrators of the outrage is being prosecuted.

Receivers For Breweries Qualify. Tonka, Kan., April 25.—The three receivers appointed by the state supreme court for the property of eight brewery companies and the Heim Real Estate Company, which have been ordered to take charge of all property in the state belonging to the defendants, were today qualified. The receivers first act was to confer at length with Sheriff Wilkerson as to the location of brewery property in Shawnee county, which consists of a quantity of beer and liquors in cold storage warehouses and horses and wagons. The receivers will first seize the property in this county and then go after that in other parts of the state.

TO CARRY FIGHT INTO THE HOUSE

Irish Home-Rule Bill Not Satisfactory to Nationalists.

PLANS OF LEADER REDMOND

Government's Measure Establishes an Irish Council to Administer Domestic Affairs in Ireland—Body to Have Little or No Legislative Power. Party's Demands May Be Granted.

London, April 26.—The Irish home-rule bill will be introduced in the British house of commons on May 7. That there are very wide differences of opinion between the government officials and the Irish Nationalists relative to the terms of the measure is not denied, but it has been agreed that the bill shall be introduced on the date determined upon by Secretary for Ireland Balfour, and what the Nationalists are unable to get from the government they will endeavor to obtain by amendments which will be proposed during the debate upon the bill. Some of the members of the cabinet were inclined to concede the demands of the Irish party.

It can be stated broadly that the provisions of the bill establish an Irish council, partly elective and partly nominative, which shall administer the domestic affairs of Ireland, exclusive of the army and navy, but will have little or no legislative powers. This is far from what the Nationalists desire, and in the discussions Mr. Redmond strove for a greater measure of home rule and will carry the fight into the house of commons, without, however, declining to accept what is offered as a sop to the Nationalists, who have abstained from participation in all the entertainments to the colonial premiers, even that given by the members of the house of commons, and are arranging a dinner for the premiers on May 6 the eve of the introduction of the Irish bill. This will be made the occasion for a great home-rule demonstration, all the premiers being denounced advocates of the self-government of Ireland.

WITHOUT POLES' AID Constitutional Democrats Powerless in Russian Parliament.

St. Petersburg, April 25.—J. G. Tzereteli, in the name of the Social Democrats, submitted to parliament interpellations concerning the repressive measures adopted by General Dragichoff, prefect of St. Petersburg, against the professional organizations, and the sympathetic strike which broke out April 24 in the Cheshire factory at Viborg, a suburb of St. Petersburg. The Social Democrats of all sections voted solidly against the Constitutional Democrats and the members of the Right, thus securing the adoption of the urgency proposal and finally the sanctioning of the interpellation. The deciding votes were cast by the Poles, who hitherto had voted consistently with the Constitutional Democrats, but supported the radicals solidly in this instance in revenge for the attitude of the Constitutional Democrats on the question of Polish autonomy. This indicates that the Constitutional Democrats are powerless in parliament without the assistance of the Poles.

NEARLY HALF MILLION LOSS IN DEPOT FIRE

Minneapolis, Minn., April 26.—Fire totally destroyed the Wisconsin Central freight depot in this city, entailing a loss of $400,000. The flames broke out from an unknown origin, and in an instant the entire building was a mass of flames. The firemen fought the flames from every point of vantage but were time and again forced back by explosions of oil on the tracks and in storage which shook the ground for 60 feet. About 18 box-cars containing freight of every description valued at $100,000, were sidetracked under the shed, and these proved fuel to the flames.

FIND SHORTAGE OF NEARLY $100,000

Woonsocket, R. I., April 26.—A shortage of about $92,000 in the accounts of the Woonsocket Electric Machine and Power company was revealed by the issuance to the stockholders of the company of a circular letter announcing that a heavy shortage had been discovered. The letter, which was issued by order of the directors, further stated that the resignation of Levi C. Lincoln, secretary, treasurer and general manager of the company, had been accepted. John J. Haffernan, counsel for the directors of the company, said: "I believe the amount of the shortage is $92,000. Mr. Lincoln has resigned and has turned over to the company property which he claims is worth $40,000."

BOWSER SEEKS FAME

Writes Himself Up For the Universal Biography of Americans.
READS IT TO THE DRUGGIST.

That Individual Put a Decided Crimp In His Customer's Ambitious Design. Shock Was More Than He Could Stand.

[Copyright, 1907, by E. C. Parcells.]
Instead of sitting down to his cigar and newspaper after dinner the other evening Mr. Bowser entered the library and closed the door, and it was a quarter of an hour before Mrs. Bowser awoke to the fact that there was something mysterious going on. Then it occurred to her that Mr. Bowser had seemed uneasy and nervous and had little to say. She gave him five minutes more and then rapped on the door and said:
"You didn't tell me that you had writing to do. Is it something special?"
"Very special, my dear," he answered. "I may be writing here until daylight. You can go to bed whenever you get ready."
"But what is it that you are going to write about until daylight? Don't you have time to write your business letters at the office? If it's anything outside of business perhaps I can help you."
Mr. Bowser looked at her longingly, but doubtfully, and finally replied:
"Give me fifteen minutes more, and perhaps I will consult with you."
It was nearly half an hour before he appeared in the sitting room with three or four pages of manuscript in his hand and a troubled look upon his literary brow. He read a part of a page and then looked at the cat; then he read the other part and looked at Mrs. Bowser and finally said:

"I know how it will come out if I ask your advice and assistance, but I always make a fool of myself in such things. You've got an idea that I don't know enough to come in when it rains."
Told Him He Was Clever.
"On the contrary," replied Mrs. Bowser, "I think you are a very clever man. Please explain just what it is this evening."
"Well, an agent for the 'Universal Biography of Famous Americans' was in the office this afternoon. He came in on other business, not knowing whose office it was, but when he heard me spoken to as Bowser he couldn't sit still. He said he had been reading and hearing about me for the last ten years and that I must have at least two pages in the book. I am to have the pages next to President Roosevelt."
"Well?"
"I am to write whatever I want to, and he will publish it word for word. It is a work such as has never been undertaken in the history of America before. There will be a thousand famous men, and no scrubs can get into it at any price. Whatever is said about me will be read by future generations for a thousand years to come."
"And what is it to cost you?"
"Only $250. Some men have paid more than that to be mentioned in a family almanac along with Captain Kidd. You know I have no vanity about me, Mrs. Bowser, but if future generations want to read of me I ought to be willing to accommodate them. Don't you think so?"
"Yes. What have you written?"
What He Wrote.
"Not a great deal. I have been trying to start the thing off, you see. I will read what I have written, and for heaven's sake don't get sarcastic and sneer at it. Tell me what you think of it, but don't jump on me with both feet, as you usually do. Now listen."
"Samuel Worthington Bowser was born in Chelsea, Mass., in 1848. His parents were poor, but honest. Like the lamented Abraham Lincoln, Mr. Bowser went barefooted until he was thirteen years old. From his infancy it was seen that he was cute, sharp and a hustler. It was predicted on all sides that he would be a great man."
"How is that?" asked Mr. Bowser when he had read that far.
"Very good," replied Mrs. Bowser, with a nod. "I haven't a word of fault to find with that. Go on."
"Mr. Bowser walked twelve miles through snowdrifts five feet high to get his education, and it was only a year before he knew more than his teacher. He realized that the college and the state prison are closely connected, and so he did not attend either. He simply starved around and got a general education, and when he had reached the age of twenty no man in America could sell him a patent washing machine."

"I don't think you have overdrawn it," said Mrs. Bowser as he stopped to look at her. "What else?"
"In his eventful life Mr. Bowser has owned groceries."
"He has brought out five different patents."
"He is the only man that ever beat a gas company."
"He has met mad dogs and earthquakes."
"He has been engaged in scientific discoveries."

Had Made Discoveries.
"He was the first to discover that if a man put his ear to a hole in the ground at night he could hear the grating sound of the world turning on its axis."
"He made it first known that a rabbit's hind legs were the longest, so that he could run backward when tired of going ahead."
"It took Mr. Bowser five years to discover that cockroaches devoured microbes by the thousand."
"It was through his indefatigable efforts that the world came to know why nature made the cucumber as we find it."
"During the past ten years Mr. Bowser has been offered various political nominations, but has always declined. When the presidency is offered him, however, which is sure to come about, he may break over his rule."
"He is not a man of one idea, as was Pliny, Cicero and Caesar, but has dealt in hogs, chickens, cows, orphans, tramps, fire escapes, burglar alarms, spring tonics, hair dyes, busted water pipes, gas saving arrangements and many other things."
"That's as far as I have gone," said Mr. Bowser as he sat down. "It won't make more than half a page, but if I once get a start the rest will come along. What criticisms have you to make?"
Mrs. Bowser had made up her mind right at the start what to do, and not the shadow of a smile had been seen on her face during the reading. When appealed to for her opinion she said:
"It would look almost like presumption on my part to criticize. I wish you would go over to the druggist. You know him to be somewhat literary, and he will surely tell you just what he thinks."
"He can think only one way unless he is jealous of me."
"But I'd drop in and see him anyway."

Would Ask the Druggist.
"Well, I guess I will. He isn't generally busy at this hour of the evening. I'll ask him to just run over what I've written and tell me what he thinks."
Mrs. Bowser was sorry to see him go, and yet she had read in the paper that the 'Universal' was a swindle, and she felt that he needed heroic treatment. At the end of half an hour she heard a fussing at the front door, and thinking some child was trying to ring the bell, she went down the hall and opened it. There was Mr. Bowser, with a man supporting him by either arm, and one of them queried:
"This is where he lives, isn't it?"
"Yes. What on earth has happened?"
"He got a shock down in the drug store, ma'am."
Mr. Bowser was assisted down the hall into the sitting room and laid on the lounge. In his hand he held the manuscript. After the men had been thanked and departed Mrs. Bowser took the sheets and found an extra one, and on it the druggist had written:
"Notice to the Public.—The bearer of this is not dangerous, and children can stroke him without fear. He is simply an easy mark."
"Poor Bowser!" she whispered as she looked from the cruel words on the paper to the man who lay on the lounge with closed eyes and a hopeless expression on his face. M. QUAD.

DIGGING A SEA LANE AT THE GATE OF NEW YORK.

MARY BUCHANAN

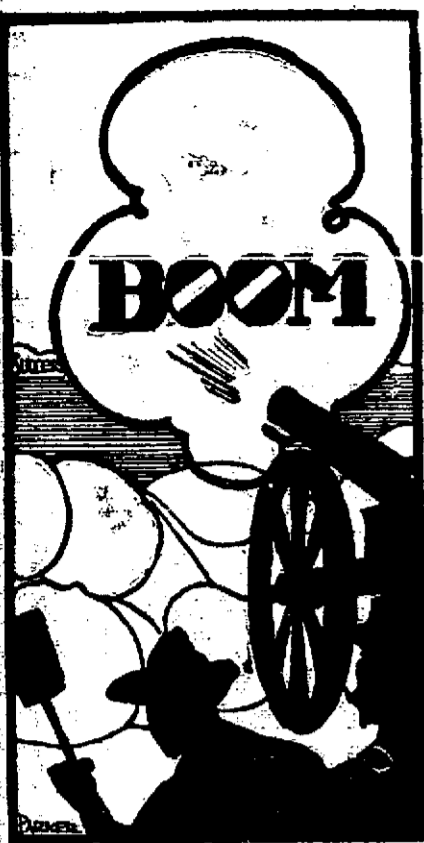

FLUMES ON THE AFTER-DECK OF THE ATLANTIC.

New York, April 26.—Once upon a time Charleston, S. C., was a port of entry of importance. But she did not attempt to translate the writing on the wall until she awoke to the fact that the size of the steamships had transported her cotton over seas prevented their crossing her harbor bar.
So Charleston demanded and received an appropriation to dredge out a bar channel. But this took time, and when it was accomplished a most grievous fate had settled over the port. Trade had sought another terminus. To an even greater extent the huge traffic of the port of New York was threatened with the same malady that attacked the city in the South, but the big town awoke in time and the federal government is at present at work on the biggest channel dredging undertaking of modern times. The new lane to the open sea will be known as the Ambrose channel, and when it is finished vessels whose keels drop 40 feet below the water line may enter the port by this immense avenue. Its dimensions are exceedingly imposing, with a length of seven miles, a width of 2000 feet and a depth of 40. Properly the original depth of water where the excavation is now progressing was not more than one-half of that, so we have a section or block of sand and mud to consider seven miles in length, more than a third of a mile wide and 10 feet thick, whose contents amount to one and one-half billion cubic feet, or 55,000,000 cubic yards, which is the unit of measure for dredging purposes. That is, 50,000,000 tons of sand will have been lifted and dumped into the sea when the channel shall have been completed. For this work the building of two extraordinary steam suction dredges was authorized, each costing not far from $500,000.

Boom! Boom!! Boom!!!

That's the way Grant's guns thundered at Vicksburg and Lee's guns thundered at Fredericksburg. Each of them thundered a little louder than the other fellow at each place and won the battle.

The war is over long ago, but booming still wins.

Make this town and the country around it your battleground, and then boom!

If you boom loud enough, people will come from afar off to find out what's up. Then a little more booming will take them prisoners and add them to the population. Then they will begin booming, and other willing captives will come in.

This is the inside history of every town on earth that amounts to anything more than a hill of beans.

Booming may be done in many ways. A board of trade can do it. A commercial club or business men's club can do it. You can do it individually.

If you don't believe in this town, why do you live here? If you do believe in it, why don't you boom it? Every new family means money in your pocket if you are in business here or own property here. If you make your living by working here, every increase of population tends to increase your wages, every new industry brought to town tends to enlarge your opportunities for making a good living.

Batteries in a battle boom together. If only one gun booms now and then it helps some, but when they all boom together something big is going to happen right off. It's just the same with town booming. When we all boom together, the things we desire to have happen will begin happening.

Now, suppose you who read this suggest through the columns of this paper some method of massing our boom batteries and making a noise that will bring people running into this town to go into business, start a factory, develop some of our natural resources.

N. B.—BOOM! BOOM!! BOOM!!!

TERRIFIC FIGHT WITH MAD BULL

MADE BY A PROMINENT FARMER, CHARLES ANGEVINE OF LIMA TOWNSHIP.

Had the Beast Not Been Dehorned the Man Would Surely Have Been Killed.

The Pataskala Standard contains the following regarding a terrific encounter, with a bull by Charles Angevine, a well known resident of Lima township, who resides a short distance north of Pataskala, and in which he miraculously escaped death. Mr. Angevine had gone to the woods to secure the animal which was running at large, and after leading him for about a hundred yards, was in the act of tying him to a limb of a tree, when the animal butted him from the rear. What followed was so confusing that he is not certain as to whether the bull knocked him down the first time or not, but if he did he regained his feet in an instant only to meet a second assault. This time he was either hurled through the air or carried on the head of the animal a distance of 25 feet, he does not know which, but he does know that the instant he struck the ground the bull was onto him, stamping him, butting him, and making every effort to put him out of business.

It was quite a fortunate thing that Mr. Angevine had dehorned the bull when young, else he would certainly have been gored to death. He was there alone with the maddened beast, far from the house and out of sight of any human help, but he says his mind was clear in regard to the necessity of action. Many thoughts chased through his brain in the space of a few seconds and he is unable to state now as to whether his subsequent action was the result of a purpose or of chance, but as the bull charged him as he lay there on his back, he managed to get hold of the ring in the bull's nose and as the latter retreated for another charge the man was drawn to his feet and by a dextrous twist and a movement on the part of the animal the latter was thrown to the earth, but was up almost in an instant, but being a little dazed by his fall, gave Mr. Angevine time enough to grasp the lead chain fastened to the ring in the nose and spring toward a small tree, around which he quickly wrapped it, thus securing his dangerous antagonist.

Mr. Angevine backed away from the maddened animal and it was only when he arrived in sight of his home that he felt safe. He was bruised and sore, but felt that his life had been spared almost by a miracle. The upper lid of his left eye was cut entirely through, but by what means he is unable to say.

He took a gun with him when he later went to release the bull. The animal is a six year old Ayrshire and was imported from Canada when a calf.

HER OWN SLEUTH IN DIVORCE CASE IS MRS. S. GREEN

WHEN YOU WANT THINGS WELL DONE DO THEM YOURSELF IS HER MOTTO.

Mrs. Green Employed Detectives Without Securing Results Then Acted Herself.

New York, April 26.—"When you want anything done well do it yourself," is the motto of Mrs. Sarah H. Green, a pretty young woman of No. 494 Third street, Brooklyn, who is suing her husband, Samuel Green, a wealthy woolen dealer at No. 175 Greene street, Manhattan, for an absolute divorce.

In her efforts to secure evidence, Mrs. Green employed various detective agencies to no purpose. Then she took matters in her own hands and with the result of her sleuthing went before Judge Thomas in the Supreme court, who today has the papers in his hands, deliberating as to his decision.

"I spent a lot of money on detectives, and my father did, too," said Mrs. Green, who is only 23 years old and strikingly handsome. "They came back with reports that were worthless and then I discharged them all."

"I thought of various plans," she said, "and secured the aid of Samuel Krantz, of No. 32 East 109th street, Manhattan. I told him to go to my husband and secure employment. He did not succeed in this, but he did get a good opportunity to see Mr. Green and I told Krantz to follow him."

"It was soon after this that Krantz followed my husband to a restaurant where Mr. Green met a woman with whom he went to the theater and later to a Lexington avenue hotel. Krantz telephoned me and together we went to the door of their room. Krantz knocked, saying he was a waiter, and when the door opened I saw my husband and the woman. With this evidence I went before Judge Thomas."

"I always did believe in doing yourself anything you want done well."

The Greens were married on Christmas eve, 1899. They have a daughter Florence five years old. Mrs. Green asks that she be awarded the custody of the child.
